League of Nations Plank Drafted by Elihu Root Accepted As Basis For Compromise

CONVENTION ADJOURNS UNTIL FOUR O'CLOCK

Chief Stumbling Block Removed And Platform May be Adopted Today.

Compromise Comes as Sensation and Removes Obstacle To Convention Work.

Johnson Issues Statement On Overcoming League Difficulty.

SESSION BRIEF

(By Associated Press)

Coliseum, Chicago, June 10.—After a session of less than a half hour the Republican National Convention recessed until four o'clock this afternoon, when the report of the platform committee is to be presented.

COMPROMISE ON LEAGUE PLATFORM

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, June 10.—A league of nations plank drafted by Elihu Root was accepted as a basis of compromise today by irreconcilables on the resolutions sub-committee.

Omitting all endorsement of the pending league covenant, the Root resolution provides for a new agreement with other nations which shall include a tribunal for settlement of international disputes. It was prepared by Senator Root before his departure for Europe. It had been modified, however, considerably by the sub-committee.

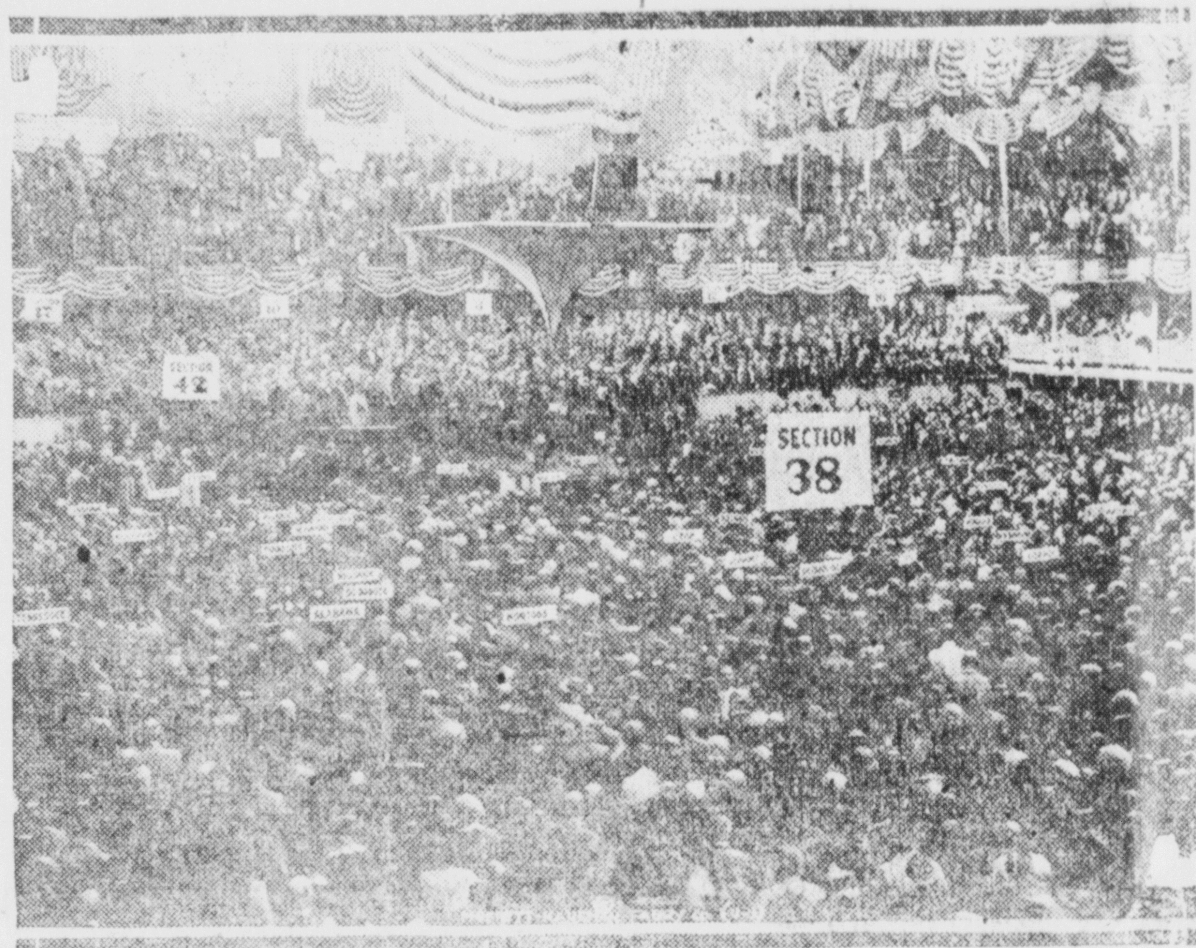

After the agreement Senator Borah said the unanimous compromise would be submitted to the full committee within an hour with every prospect of approval and that it was planned to present the completed platform to the convention at four o'clock.

The members of the sub-committee declined to give out the text of the plank.

The league plank had been the only one remaining in dispute and today's agreement was hailed as presaging a harmonious turn to all future platform proceedings of the convention.

The development came as a sensation soon after the sub-committee had begun what seemed likely to be a long and desperate struggle. It removed, sub-committee members said, the obstacle which had been holding up the work of the convention and probably would permit final action on the platform at today's session.

THE G. O. P. CONVENTION IN SESSION—OPENING PRAYER

Rt. Rev. Charles Edward Woodcock (directly below inverted megaphone) is reading the opening prayer while the delegates, numbering over 12,000, stand.

Colored delegates from of Tennessee, sat through the lobbies and headquarters.

WILLIS CALLED

At 11:20 o'clock Secretary Miller informed former Governor Willis of Ohio who is to nominate Senator Harding, that the convention would proceed to nominating speeches while awaiting report from the platform committee. It was later, however, decided at a meeting of leaders to adjourn.

JOHNSON TALKS

Senator Johnson declared that in the contest over the platform section on the league of nations the "first assault of internationalism and international bankers on the republican party had been met and defeated."

The compromise plank was described by Senator Borah as establishing these three principles for which the irreconcilables had contended:

"Omission of any pledge for ratification;
"Commendation of the Senate for refusing to ratify;
"A statement that any future league must be in accord with American ideals and the principles of Washington."

Chairman Watson, Indiana, said in his opinion the treaty plank would not aid or injure any of the candidates. He said all could stand on the agreed provision.

COMPROMISE IS VICTORY DECLARES SEN. JOHNSON

Seeks to Spread The Impression That League Compromise Is Great Victory For Principles Which He Advocated.

CHICAGO, JUNE 10.—(Associated Press)—While the rough league of nations plank commends the Senate's rejection of the Versailles covenant, it is understood to contain a provision expressing in general terms the party's approval of some international concert for peace. It was that feature, it was said, which led the mild reservationists to accept it.

News of the agreement started lively speculation whether the chances of any presidential candidate would be aided or injured by the adjustment. The generally expressed first impression was that it would affect none of them except perhaps Senator Johnson. He immediately hailed it as a victory for the principles he had advocated but it was pointed out that it probably would remove the opportunity which many delegates thought he wanted for impassioned debate on the subject on the convention floor.

Lowden, Wood and Harding headquarters refused to issue any statement at once on the plank. It was said Governor Lowden might have something to say later in the day, but Wood's managers were inclined to think their candidate would remain silent for the present.

The sub-committee's action today regarding prohibition, members said, was refusal to incorporate the plank proposed by Wm. Allen White, declaring specifically for enforcement of the 18th amendment and all laws thereunder.

Can Sign Bills For Ten Days After Congress Adjourns Is Ruling.

Decision Expected to Change Status of Important Measures.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 10.—Attorney General Palmer has made an informal ruling which has been communicated to President Wilson, that the chief executive has ten days after the adjournment of Congress in which to sign bills and resolutions.

This rule may change the status of a number of bills which the President killed by "pocket veto," explaining that he had not sufficient time in which to consider them. These measures include the water power bill and the resolution repealing most of the special war-time legislation.

MORNING OUTLOOK ANYTHING BUT BRIGHT

Early Reports Thursday Morning Very Discouraging Before Compromise Reached.

Planned Nominations Before Platform Was Worked Out

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, June 10.—The third day of the Republican National Convention opened with the party machinery for the moment at least, doubly deadlocked.

There had emerged from endless negotiating behind the scenes no agreement, either as to a presidential candidate or even a tentative draft of vital planks in the platform on which the party will stand.

Overnight, the league of nations issue had been swept suddenly upward to a position of overshadowing importance, almost of menace, in party councils.

It was the rock on which the special harmonizing sub-committee on platforms split after hours of fruitless labor toward a compromise.

As the platform makers resumed their work this morning, they described prospects for an agreement as "pretty bad." The irreconcilables on the league of nations issue continued their threat to leave the party if the platform affirmed it in any way.

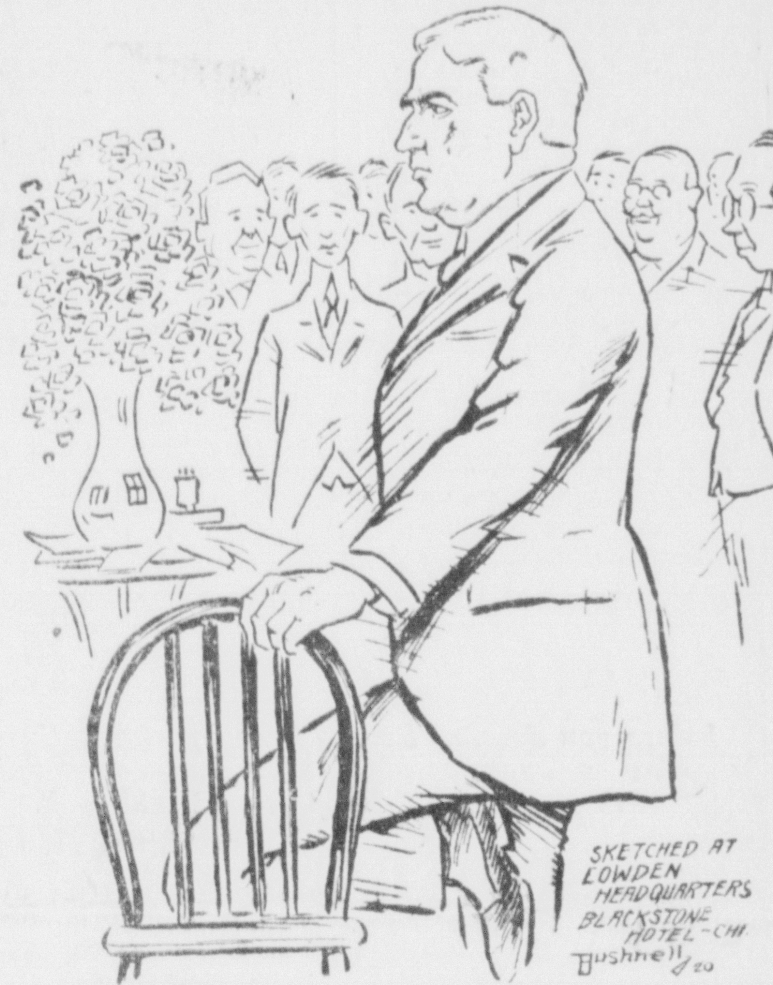

Unable to agree on any declaration proposed to be incorporated in the platform, the sub-committee adjourned long after midnight.

Meanwhile, the convention itself must mark time. No real progress could be made with its work and another early adjournment seemed likely today.

When the mass of the more than one thousand footsore delegates arose to resume the endless round of candidate camps and other headquarters that fill the day for them pending the final struggle of balloting, the air about them was tense with whispers of impending events.

Undefinable rumors of serious ruptures between factional leaders were abroad. There was talk of bolts and of what delegations would walk out in that case, and there was no one to say from where this talk came. And underneath this dispute on issues still lay the unsolved riddles of the candidates, Wood, Johnson, Lowden, or—who?

The convention program also was not known in advance. Under rules it has adopted, it has been suggested the naming of a candidate might be preceded with, leaving platform issues to be settled as "unfinished business" later.

(By Associated Press)

Norristown, Pa., June 10.—Hope of getting into communication with the kidnapers of 12-month-old Blakely Coughlin revived today with arrival of a second letter from Savannah, Ga. It was received by George H. Coughlin, father of the boy.

As in the first letter no attempt is made to establish the identity of the child. The letter follows:

"When you are convinced about the right party having your child then I will deal with you if it isn't too late.

"I can hear your wife sobbing. She has my sympathy. But I am into it now and don't intend to be caught at my own game.

"I don't need the child, but I do need the money, so this is a warning to be careful. For I am not asleep."

HIGH SCHOOL FOR STAUNTON

A resolution to establish a third grade high school at Staunton with a two year course which is to be supplemented by work in Washington High School was adopted Tuesday evening by the Concord Township Board of Education. Teachers were hired for the Concord centralized school and for the Staunton school which will also be completed by the beginning of the fall term.

Teachers hired for the Staunton school were Miss Grace Patton, of Wayne township, who has been teaching in Cincinnati, for the seventh and eighth grades at a salary of $125 per month for the eight and one half months term and Miss Josephine Roush, of Green township, for the intermediate department at a salary of $115 per month.

Two teachers hired for the Conner School were Miss Margaret Kinkaid at $110 per month for the intermediate department and Miss Nelle Street at $115 per month for the primary department. One man will be in the Conner school.

In declaring for a high school it will not be the first time that the higher studies have been given at Staunton. From 1907 until 1913 Staunton had a high school but since 1913 the students have come to this city. A high school teacher has not been employed.

Arrangements will be made with Washington High School whereby students finishing their two year course may enter the local high and graduate from a first grade school.

The first tank erected on South North street has a capacity of 14,000 gallons.

MALLOW DEVELOPS A PACER REJECTED BY THE U. S. ARMY

A horse that was rejected by officers of the United States Army competing against the world's greatest pacers will be presented at the opening meeting of the Grand Circuit at North Randall, the week of July 5.

The horse in question is called Army Rejected, due to his having been turned down as an army mount. What his ancestry is, no one knows. He will go down in the race records as a horse of unknown ancestry but never the less, there are several equine blue bloods that will unquestionably take the dust of the rejected one if his training performances are anything to go by.

The horse came from somewhere in the West but no one seems to know just where. He was shipped to an Ohio remount station during the war where government buyers weeded out the good from the bad. Army Rejected looked all right, but when he was led out, he struck into a pace. Pacers were not wanted and Army Rejected was turned down. He was immediately put up for auction. No one seem to want him until Worf Mallow, one of Ohio's best known race drivers, chanced along. Mallow looked the animal over, thought he would take a chance, and bought the animal for $38.50.

The horse was shipped to Mallow's home quarters at Washington C. H., where he was gradually taught to pace properly. Finally the hopples were brought into use and Army Rejected immediately began to show speed. To day, he appears to be one of the best pacing prospects in the country and it looks as though Mallow picked up for a song, a horse that will make some of the blue ribbon horses look like "plow horses." — Springfield Sun.

MORE THAN 40 REHWINKLE MEN IN SESSION HERE

Election of Officers and Notable Addresses Feature Last Meeting of Year.

Local Dentists and Wives Prove Gracious Entertainers At Chilli-Con Carne Dinner After Busy Session.

More than forty dentists, coming from Dayton, Columbus, Wilmington, Chillicothe, Greenfield, Hillsboro, New Holland, Leesburg, and adjoining towns, met in this city Wednesday in the last meeting of the year of the Rehwinkle Dental Society.

While in this city the dentists were the guests of local men of the profession, Drs. Soddors, Robison, Bush, McFadden, Lanum, and Woollard, and were royally entertained during their sojourn in this city.

In the election of officers that preceded the business session Dr. Thompson, of Hillsboro was chosen President of the Rehwinkle Dental Society, Dr. Kaye, of Chillicothe, Secretary; Dr. C. V. Yaple, of Chillicothe, Treasurer; Dr. C. N. Martin, of Wilmington, First Vice-President; Dr. C. W. Soddors of this city, Second Vice-President; Dr. T. M. McFadden, Censor. These men will serve one year.

Outgoing officers are: Dr. A. M. Bush, President; Dr. F. E. Woollard, Secretary; and Dr. C. V. Lanum, Treasurer.

Following the election of officers Dr. Hebble, of Columbus, spoke on "Amalgam Fillings and Root Canal Work." "Preventive Dentistry" was the subject for discussion by Dr. J. W. Seigfried, of Dayton. Dr. Carl H. Stricker, of Cincinnati, delivered a talk on "Important Factors in Partial Denture Construction." Paper and Clinic, using Dr. Winter's technic on extracting impacted third molars. Dr. A. J. Lewis of Dayton, "Clinic Inlay Attachments for Bridges" Dr. Shunway, of Columbus.

During the afternoon the discussion brought out many features of work in the field of dentistry and the doctors were benefited to no little degree by the exchange of ideas and experiences.

It was the last meeting for this year and next session of Rehwinkle men will not be held before late fall. The place where the next gathering is to be held has not been decided.

Chilli-Con-Carne Dinner

The climax to the interesting afternoon session came at six o'clock with the serving in the Y. M. C. A. dining room of a Chilli-Con-Carne dinner by the wives, daughters and sisters of the local dentists and nothing could have completed the last meeting of the year more delightfully. The novelty of the Mexican dinner was a leading factor in the brilliant success of the banquet hour and the enthusiastic appreciation of the dentists was loudly acclaimed after they had sampled the favorite Mexican dish, Chilli Carne and its accompanying delicacies.

Only an expert can concoct the hot, spicy Chilli-Con-Carne as it was served Wednesday night and with it was Chilli rice, another Mexican specialty, mashed potatoes, baked beans, home made pickles, salads, hot rolls, jellies and a desert course of luscious big strawberries and angel food cake as light as a feather.

It was all delicious and bouquets were freely handed to the wives, daughters, and sisters who had spared no effort and succeeded in making the dinner a gastronomic event entirely out of the ordinary and worthy of being red lettered in the annals of the Rehwinkle Society. Mrs. Soddors was the chairman and gave personal attention to the preparation of the Chilli-con-carne and chilli rice having learned the art of making these dishes in true Mexican style from the Mexicans themselves.

The long table was beautifully decorated and throughout the large "Y" dining room there was a wealth of summer bloom in effective arrangement.

Upon the seating of the Dentists, Dr. Soddors, President of the Washington C. H. Society, introduced the wives, daughters and sisters and from them gave welcome and greeting in the following original bit of verse written by his wife.

Doctors We're glad to meet you To greet you, and to treat you to a Mexican menu.

Now in that hot land over there He questions not his bill of fare Of Chilli con-carne or chillas Or his hush-wrapped hot temalas Whether they have been analyzed Whether he'll be killed or paralyzed He says all, but eats his dinner Who eats the most, is the winner Doctors you may do like-wise Help yourselves is the only compromise

Fear not we're learned to Americanize. The dinner, spiced with wit and bantering, was greatly enjoyed and called forth a vote of thanks both to the women who gave it and to the Y. M. C. A. for the use of the "Y" dining room.

With Dr. Soddors ably filling the role of toastmaster, there was an interesting after dinner hour, and happy responses by a number of the Dentists. Dr. Phillips, of Chillicothe wound it up in bright fashion by offering a little impromptu verse. It ran: "We surely have enjoyed by you this Chilli-con-Carne But its too bad that we return much Chillicothie Blarney Man wants little here below The poet sang with fire The only comment I can make That poet was a liar."

LOCAL AUTO CLUB NOW RANKS NINTH

The remarkable growth of the Fayette County Automobile Club has placed it with the largest clubs of the state and is now holding ninth place among the members of the State Automobile Association. Figures sent to the club Thursday show that there are but eight clubs of larger membership and all these are organizations in cities with a much greater population than Washington Court House and its adjoining districts.

The eight clubs outstripping the Fayette organization are located in Cleveland, Akron, Youngstown, Columbus, Mansfield, Lorain, Wooster and Warren.

The membership of the Fayette Auto Club is approaching the 700

Club members feel proud of their organization when it is known that there are 45 clubs in the state. The record of the Fayette Club is attracting the attention of the largest motoring units.

Senator Lodge's Speech

As temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention, at Chicago, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, sounded the "keynote" for the party's campaign in his speech, to the assembled delegates, formally opening the gathering.

It was a scholarly address, but that was to be expected of Senator Lodge. It was well delivered and that also was not unexpected, because the leader of the reservationists in the Senate is a scholar and polished speaker.

As a matter of fact, however, the speech seems to have failed to enthuse the delegates or to meet public expectations.

The arraignment of the present national administration was bitter in the extreme. It bore the unmistakable evidence, in its cutting phrases, of personal hostility and enmity and speeches of that type, almost invariably, fail to strike a responsive chord with either partisans or public.

Senator Lodge's speech would have met with much greater favor had he presented and discussed a policy of construction rather than one of destruction and criticism entirely. The great party for which Senator Lodge had the honor to make the opening speech of the campaign faces a marvelous opportunity for construction and it is little disappointing to its members to have that opportunity ignored, no definite program of action announced and a continuation of the unpopular policy of the Senate leaders of the last two years in finding fault with everything decreed as the principle upon which the party will go before the nation asking for support.

It is difficult to believe that the rank and file of the party voters will follow the program of Senator Lodge. It is more reasonable and hopeful to believe that the great republican party will define its own constructive program and enter the campaign not as a fault-finder and complainer, but as an aggressive force unafraid to grapple with present day problems, at home and abroad.

The people are weary of the past with all its sorrows, all its mistakes and all of its combats. They are facing the future and it is with the future they are concerned.

A "forward looking" keynote speech by Senator Lodge followed by "forward looking" declarations of principles would have made a much more favorable impression on the delegates who are seeking a leader to follow and a platform on which to stand.

Trucks and Roads

The coming of the truck—or rather the need for truck transportation—has made the roads problem more difficult of solution.

Everyone realizes the necessity for the use of trucks and there is little hostility, generally speaking, about moving them over the roads.

It is apparent though that there must be some limit placed on the size of trucks and some plan of construction agreed upon else the roads will soon be made unfit for trucks and all other vehicles.

If the ponderous "young freight car" trucks are to pass to and fro over the roads then some extra truck facilities must be provided. If companies or individuals in motor truck transportation business use trucks properly constructed, of moderate size and properly and carefully driven they can use the roads without harm. There is a growing inclination, however, to ignore the road builders' troubles and the cost to the people and appropriate the roads for big trucks.

The big trucks must be kept off the highways or it will not be long until we have no highways for trucks or ourselves either.

Our City Streets

Although the streets in the business section of the city are passing through the process of being repaired and resurfaced and although the traffic over all streets is doubled by the hauling of material for streets being rebuilt and repaired, it is a subject of frequent complimentary remarks that our streets were never cleaner than they are now.

We have had so much cause to complain about the neglect of our streets and the untidy appearance generally, because of a failure to keep them clean that it is a pleasure now to compliment the officials for the pleasant conditions prevailing. Keep it up.

POETRY FOR TODAY

SIR ROBIN, ARISTOCRAT
He is the bird aristocrat,
Alert and slim;
He tips to you his feather'd hat,
Gentle and trim.
He dances on the velvet lawn,
Blithesome and gay,
Harbinger of the rosy dawn
Of summer's day.

He seems in love with his sweet strain;
After the showers
He thanks God for the soft sweet rain,
And sings for hours.
He is the last to go to rest
When shadows creep
With velvet gloom from out the West.
When does he sleep?
The first to greet the rosy dawn,
The last to cease
His dance and carol on the lawn,
He seems at ease
Where'er he hops to make his way
With tilting hat—
This blithesome visitant and gay
Aristocrat.

WOOD FORCES IN CONTROL OF THE CONVENTION

Sullivan Sees Evidence of Harmony Between Johnson And Wood Forces.

HITCHCOCK IS MASTER

Of The Convention Strategy and Has a Confident Air.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Chicago, June 8.—Probably very few of the general public take the pleasure that close observers do in the strategy of such a contest as is now being played out between Wood and Lowden. Such contests have their technique almost as much as football has or military campaigns. Considered on that basis, the present fight between these two men has not been equaled in our political history for forty years. Considered on this basis, Wood, tonight, undoubtedly has the advantage.

The Wood forces swung into action today in manner that they have not had at any time in the past. It is perfectly apparent that solidarity has at last been achieved in the Wood management, that Frank Hitchcock is in complete control of the convention strategy, and that his policy will be followed and his decisions final. He had today the confident air of a man who is sure of his ground and has plenty of hope.

In the two important moves that were made today, Hitchcock and the Wood forces had complete and almost sensational victories. In the organization of the very important Committee on Credentials, the Wood forces won the chairmanship, organized the committee and demonstrated that they have a sufficient majority to carry out their wishes. Having shown their power they used it generously. Similarly, in the organization of the Committee on Resolutions, the Wood forces won conspicuously. There were two candidates for chairmanship; one was Mr. Ogden Mills of New York. Mr. Mills had the prestige of having been closely associated previously with the national chairman, Mr. Will Hays. In opposition to him was Senator James Watson of Indiana. Senator Watson as a delegate is instructed for Wood. The Wood forces backed Senator Watson's candidacy and elected him readily. In the organization of both these committees it is of the highest significance that the Wood forces were helped by the Johnson forces.

Your correspondent, in saying all this, does not mean to imply any prediction as to the outcome; but it is clear that harmony and compactness have come to the Wood forces, that Frank Hitchcock is in undisputed charge, and that he won two important victories against the Lowden forces and also, in a way, against the power of the National Committee as a whole.

CITY OFFICIAL SAYS THAT HE HAS BEEN PREJUDICED

Makes Significant Statement Regarding His Opinion of Medicines, But He Found That Nerv-Worth Was Different When It Gave Desired Results.

"I have always been prejudiced against medicine, but I am now of different opinion, for Nerv-Worth is more than a medicine. It's a miracle," said C. W. Whitmer, 210 Hill St., Xenia, Ohio. And he goes on, "I was completely rundown and terribly nervous, and I couldn't sleep. I would toss and turn most of the night. Had gas on my stomach, and belched quite some time after eating. I have taken one bottle of Nerv-Worth and been helped marvelously. I have not enjoyed sleep in six months as I do now. I cannot recommend it too highly for I feel like a different man."

Mr. Whitmer is one of Xenia's highly respected citizens and held the office of Director of Public Service in this city for four terms. A statement coming from such a man is more than convincing proof. Nerv-Worth has proved a miracle in millions of other cases, just as it has in this case. It acts in a sensible way to bring about the desired results because it is one medicine that acts jointly for the benefit of stomach and nervous ills. It aids the digestive system, neutralizes excess poisonous acids, drives out impurities, stops gas forming, and at the same time that it does this it gives nerve force, sound restful sleep, and tones and invigorates the system throughout. If you suffer from ill health, do not hesitate to start at once on Nerv-Worth, for it will do for you what it has done for millions of others in all parts of the country. Take a bottle home and use it according to directions, and if you are not satisfied that it is helping you your money will be refunded.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Washington C. H. friends of Mr. Howard Gray have received cards announcing his marriage to Miss Helen Lorena Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morris of Dayton, on Thursday June the third, nineteen hundred and twenty.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gray, formerly of this city, now of Dayton. A graduate of the local high school class of '14, he was one of the popular young business men of this city until three years ago, when he accepted a good offer in Cincinnati. He served during the war in the Field Artillery of the 37th Division and located in Dayton upon his return.

The best wishes of a host of friends here will follow the announcement.

Supt. and Mrs. T. S. Pinkerton, of the Children's Home entertained the Trustees of the Home and their wives the County Commissioners and their wives and a few other fortunate guests at an elegant three course dinner at the Home Tuesday noon.

Peonies and roses were beautifully arranged in table decoration and covers were laid for eighteen. Emma Marchant did the excellent catering, assisted by Mrs. Furbush, of Bloomington.

The day was one of exceptional interest as well as social pleasure. Supt. and Mrs. Pinkerton, as always, the most hospitable of entertainers.

The beauty of the large grounds in the wealth of summer bloom and perfect condition, was the special subject of admiration.

Seated with Supt. and Mrs. Pinkerton were Mr. Howard Hagler, Miss Mary Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Browning, Mr. Elmer Junk, Mr. and Mrs. David Whiteside, Dr. D. H. Rowe Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Gage, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Perrill, Mr. George Jackson, Mr. J. E. McLean.

Mrs. J. B. Mark and Mrs. Elmer Rowe each gave valuable talks on canning which was later discussed.

Virginia Slagle the young daughter of the house played several much enjoyed piano selections.

Delicious refreshments were served. The July meeting will hold the thirteenth of next month with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Deere.

The meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of Union Chapel M. E. Church, Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Clark Durlinger near Yatesville, carried with it more than the usual interest, in that the hostess announced the engagement of her sister-in-law, Miss Laura Durlinger to Mr. Harley Davis, the wedding to take place this month.

At the close of the regular program which consisted of well rendered vocal and piano solos by Miss Grace Klever and Mrs. J. A. Wissler, entertaining readings by Mrs. Harrow and Miss Jenny McCrea and a splendid paper on "Home-Making" by Mrs. David Whiteside, the announcement was made by Mrs. Durlinger.

With happy camouflage Mrs. Durlinger rose to read the paper for which she was assigned on the program, but which proved to be the announcement.

The attractive bride-to-be was showered with good wishes and a most delightful social hour followed with seasonable refreshments served.

Summer flowers were used in pretty arrangement throughout the home.

ROAD EXPLODES NEAR THIS CITY

The hot sun was too much for the brick paving on the Leesburg pike, near the Harlow residence, Wednesday afternoon, and a section 44 bricks wide and extending entirely across the road, blew up.

The damage resulting was given attention Thursday, and until the repairs are completed and the paving opened for traffic, vehicles may pass on either side of the paving.

It is announced by Inspector Clarence Sheeley, who has witnessed a number of road explosions, that the threatened break is first indicated by enormous pressure on a single row of brick, and that after being crushed to some extent by the enormous pressure, the brick give way and after flying up in the air a few feet or slowly rising up, collapse.

In some instances the entire paved surface for more than one mile crawls forward during the expansion process, and when repairs are made it is impossible to relay by several courses the brick thrown out by the explosion.

SHAMROCK, ON TRIAL SPIN, SHOWS HER FLEETNESS

Yachting enthusiasts recently got their first glimpse since 1914 of the Shamrock IV, Commodore Lipton's cup challenger, under way when she was taken out for her first trial spin in preparation for the cup events next month. The challenger's speed surprised American critics. It was believed, for one thing, that she would be a bit sluggish with the wind abeam. This idea was dispelled quickly.

For the first time in many years the Washington Athletics will play at some outside city other than Wilmington. The local management completed arrangements Thursday morning for playing the Robbins & Myers team at Springfield Saturday afternoon.

The team will make the trip in autos and will leave about ten o'clock Saturday morning. Several rooters will accompany the squad.

Morris has drawn the pitching assignment and Emery will receive the slants.

The game is to be played at the Ohio State League Park which has been leased by the Robbins & Myers Company.

VOTERS ACTIVE IN BOND ISSUE

From activities at the polls Thursday indications were that the ballot in the special school election for the issuance of $35,000 in bonds with which a school building is to be erected in the eastern part of the township would be unusually heavy.

It is the second time that the election has been called in the cause of the bond issue and interest seems to have been aroused to decide the question either for or against.

BAPTISTS DECLINE FURTHER ACTION IN WORLD MOVE

Chicago, June 10.—The Northern Baptists will, in all likelihood, not participate in any further attempted organic union with the thirty denominations which had a part in the inter Church World Movement. This announcement was issued today by Baptist leaders in New York. The marked tendency toward organic union of the great Protestant denominations, according to the Baptist proclamation, "meets with an absolute check in the Baptists' fundamental idea of the church."

Dining Room Economy

THERE was a time when you had to accept a floor-covering for the dining room that was far from ideal. Now that you can get Sanolin, the question of what to use on your dining room floor is delightfully answered. Beauty is combined with cleanliness; low price is linked with durability. Sanolin lies flat on the floor without fastenings of any kind; does not crack, buckle, or crawl; is not affected by extreme heat or cold; has a thicker wearing surface than any similar floor-covering, and its patterns remain bright longer. In fact, Sanolin out-wears even the best printed linoleum.

A happy selection of an attractive Sanolin pattern is easily made for every room in the house.

Sanolin is guaranteed to give satisfactory service.

BLOOMINGBURG GAS RATES TO BE INCREASED

The Washington Gas and Electric Company has filed with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio a new rate schedule for natural gas at Bloomingburg in which increased rates are specified.

The new rates filed are for 70 cents per thousand cubic feet gross, and 65 cents per thousand cubic feet net. The difference between the gross and net constitutes the prompt payment discount. The minimum for a month is to remain 75 cents.

Old rates in Bloomingburg, and the ones which are still in effect, are 45 cents gross per thousand cubic feet and 40 cents net per thousand cubic feet.

The new rates are to become effective, according to the papers filed with the State Commission, on June 30th, which will mark the end of the present contract period.

SUMMARY OF CORN AND WHEAT STATES

Light to moderate local showers have occurred in scattered areas, principally in the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, northeast Nebraska and east Ohio. Temperatures are lower in the Northwest but elsewhere there has been little change.

Weekly Weather and Crop Report for the Ohio Section for the Week Ending June 8, 1920.

The week was generally favorable to field work and good progress was made. During the first half, light to moderate showers occurred in most sections and as these were accompanied by normal or slightly higher temperature they were quite favorable to plant growth, but during the latter part of the week it was a little too cool for the best developments of vegetation. Rain is now greatly needed in some sections and a warm, general rain would be beneficial to all crops, especially late sown oats, meadows and pastures.

Early planted corn is showing a good stand; cultivation is well under way; some planting and some replanting yet to be done. Winter wheat is heading out but is short; some complaint of damage from the fly and the joint worm. Early sown oats are improving but the latter is not doing so well. Most other crops are making satisfactory growth but some need more rain. The transplanting of tobacco was commenced; the plant is rather inferior. Fruit continues good to excellent.

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains every month so bad that I would nearly double up. Sometimes I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug-store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and threw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash I could do my own housework. If it had not been for your medicine I don't know where I would be today and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. You may publish this if you like that it may help some other woman."—Mrs. MARY STENGER, 120 Orange St., Wyandotte, Mich.

Summary of Weather and Crop Conditions in the Corn and Wheat Region for the Week Ending June 8, 1920.

The weather was too cool during much of the week for the best development of warm weather crops, especially in central and northern districts and the far Northwest but other vegetation made fairly good advance. Satisfactory advance was made with farm work except that there was some delay in the completion of planting principally in the Ohio Valley, and cultivation was retarded in the lower Great Plains by wet soil. Corn made rather slow growth in most sections on account of the low night temperature but the conditions were more favorable in the northwest near the close of the week. Winter wheat made mostly good to excellent growth although its condition continues rather poor in many localities east of the Mississippi River. Rain benefited wheat in the central and northern Atlantic Coast states and the extreme northwest. The weather was favorable to the advance of spring wheat and its condition is mostly very good to excellent. Other grains continue to make satisfactory advance and the weather continued favorable to pastures, ranges, and stock but it was rather cool in most sections for garden truck.
